

ESTABLISHED 1864.

Pinney, who rests the most of his time registers his name as Geo. M. Pinney, "U. S. Senate," probably meaning the United States has got him.

Rev. Almon Gage, who filled the pulpit of the Universalist church in this city during several months a few years ago and was Afterwards settled over the Bates street church in Lewiston, was expecting to spend most of the summer in this State, but was called to his home in Canandaigua, N. Y., on account of the illness of his father.—Augusta, (Maine) Standard.

Mr. Gage formerly resided in Arizona, but belonged to quite a different profession, it being that of law. Mr. Gage was Attorney-General of the Territory, and was considered a man of more than ordinary ability and honesty.

Some one has sent us a copy of the Louisville Courier-Journal, containing a very ill-atured article, reflecting severely on Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Ex-Governor McCormick, of this Territory.
 It is not contended, even by his friends.

that McCormick is absolutely a Saint, but it is a truth, nevertheless, that he is the best friend Arizona ever had in Washington, and as we do not propose to help to pull down the bridge that has carried us over, we respectfully decline to become accessory to

THE CERRO DE PASCO (PERU) SILVER LINES.—Specimens of silver ore recently taken from the Cerro de Pasco mines.

Peru shows that the submerged portion of the mountain is very rich, and a rough estimate shows that a body of ore will be exposed by the new tunnel which Mr. Henry Meiggs is to build, worth from $300,000, $500,000,000. These mines have lain un-er water for fifty years, and are scarcely known to the present generation, though they had been worked for 250 years, when the mines had to stop on account of water. Peru has now discovered that a tunnel can be built which will drain the mountain completely, by draining off the lake from which the water in the mine comes, and she is so much in earnest about it that the first loads of the now submerged ore are expected to reach Lima in four months. It is predicted that within ten years more silver will be taken out than from the silver mine in

The Cleveland Leader, which represents republican sentiments in Northern Ohio, publishes the following "platform of principles" which it intimates will be adopted

“First—Favoring an amendment to the national Constitution forbidding appropriations of public money, property or credit for the benefit of any institution under sectarian control.

* Fourth—Favoring an amendment to the Fifth—An effective registration law, for the purpose of preserving the purity of the franchise.

"Sixth—The passage of a law to prevent threats or intimidation of any kind by agents, ministers, employers or other persons for the purpose of influencing the voter exercising his right of elective franchise."

A writer in the Courier-Journal who appears to be a Methodist, objects to the above, and attempts to show that the Methodist denomination has much more Church property in the United States than any other

This, it seems to us, is a very narrow view for a leading journal to take of a question much broader than that of the of so much magnitude. If the Methodists are unable or unwilling to pay their taxes like other people, they ought not to take the property.

***

KAUTZ AND REYNOLDS.

the following, touching on the former eer of the Commander of the Department of Arizona and Colonel, Chas. A.
 Snodds, the worthy Chief Qr.-Master of zona, we copy from the Grant County rald, of Aug. 4:

has been formed in Prescott. Gen. G. H. B. ... Department Commander, is President. The General went to Mexico before ... graduated at West Point. Colonel ... A. Reynolds, Chief Qr.-Master of the ... department, and also a member of the assotion, while a mere boy, ran away from home, near Baltimore, to Fort M'Henry, where he joined the volunteers about to sail for Vera Cruz. One day prior to his departure, the stripling being on guard, saw with apprehension his venerable sire (hima veteran of North Point and of 1812; going toward his boat evidently with the noble intention of reclaiming his martial name. The latter halted him in true military style and sternly required the author of his going to remain where he was until the intentions of the country were generally known.

father applied to have his son released on the ground that he was a minor, but the military authorities refused. He was then speedily took another French leave of absence and joined his comrades. Col. R. was a representative in every sense of the word of the French Revolution down to the present day.

million—and the great-grand-son of a revolutionary sire is now a cadet at West at.”

—♦♦♦—

isses.—A humorous friend of ours used be particularly enthusiastic on the classic out of speculation. He declared that of education. He declared that there were few "sciences" so difficult of acquisition. "People," said he "will kiss; yet one in a hundred knows how to extract diamonds from lovely lips any more than he knows how to make diamonds from charcoal." He used to relate his experience of a tonight's kiss after having escorted her and from a forfeit party, where the poor had been kissed, and "slobbered over to and sundry." He declared that in that chaste salute he could discriminate the distinct and separate flavors," namely, ons, tobacco, peppermint, gin, lager beer,

sly, checkerberry, musk, and camphor.
The small fox at Santa Fe, New Mexico, is on the decrease: they have only had 110 during the last 90 days, where 400 reported to have taken place, and red the features of some of the handi-Mexican Sinorita, with her glistening k eye, pearly white teeth and skin, and massive locks of waving jet hair, for are the daughters of Santa Fe.